Explanatory notes:

- A separate confirmation must be completed for each customer (eg joint holders, trustee cases and joint life cases). Where a third party is involved, eg a payer of contributions who is different from the customer, the identity of that person must also be verified, and confirmation provided.
- This form cannot be used to verify the identity of any customer that falls into one of the following categories:
 - Those who are exempt from verification as being an existing client of the introducing firm prior to the introduction of the requirement for such verification.
 - Those whose identity has not been verified by virtue of the application of a permitted exemption under the Money Laundering Regulations; or
 - Those whose identity has been verified using the source of the funds as evidence.
- This confirmation must carry an original signature or an electronic equivalent.
